News Around Town

I thought this a good one:

Randy: "Some blind date you got me! Look at her—she's too fat, her hair is bleached and she's missing two front teeth."

Sandy: "You don't have to whisper. She's deaf, too."

We are informed that the Rev. H. Frederick Jones is recovering from a recent illness at his home in Greenville, N. C. Mr. Jones is a beloved former pastor of Liberty Baptist Church.

Representative Watkins M. Abbitt will be the guest speaker at the Stonewall Community Center Thursday evening, October 7. Rep. Abbitt will use as his subject: The Farm Program, and What Social Security Will Mean to the Farmer."

The Hazel Moon Circle of Liberty Baptist Church will meet Monday evening, October 4, at 8 o'clock in the home of Mrs. A. F. Godsey. Mrs. Godsey and Mrs. T. H. Trent will be hostesses. All members are urged to be present.

Mrs. Veva Spain, Worthy Grand Matron of the Eastern Star of Virginia, will make her visitation to the Appomattox Chapter tomorrow evening. The chapter will have a banquet in her honor at Maud's Hot Shop.

The Girl Scouts will hold their first meeting of the year Wednesday afternoon, Oct. 6 at the Presbyterian Church. The meeting will be held after school closes.

Dr. Spencer has a stock of spring bulbs at the drug store. The assortment looks good to us.

There was a meeting of the Lions Club board of directors last night. A committee of the club is working on plans to purchase equipment for the new high school gymnasium.

Lots of people have been raving about the fine baby beef being sold at Drinkard's Store at Oakville. Mr. Drinkard has an ad in today's paper listing his offerings. I plan to go to Oakville tonight for a look.

We came through Farmville last Saturday ... about dark ... and gee how the crowds were gathering at the Fair grounds. And we met a big line of cars for several miles. And in Richmond last week-end there was a tremendous traffic jam. The State Fair and the Tobacco Festival combined to block many city areas with cars. You just couldn't get a taxi anyplace. A lawyer and his wife from Roanoke, finally shared a taxi with us, else we would stood on a corner for hours! Downtown Richmond was almost like Times Square. We did not get out to the Fair, but took in the Tobacco Festival. The floats were the best I have ever seen and the Princesses were lovely. As usual, Father Darkleaf raved about the wonderful Ferko String Marching Band.

All over town yesterday, people stopped whatever they were doing to watch the World Series baseball game. We passed by one local store and some 25 or 30 people were gathered in front of a television set. Back in the old days, telegraph was the accepted way to get the Series. They tell it that once the baseball fans here in Appomattox leased a telegraph line to get the play by play of a game, and all hands met down at the depot for the event. There is a fascination about a Series game. I am not too much of a baseball fan, but it seems to me that Cleveland has majority support here. Many fans would like to see Bob Feller win a World Series game.

Big doings are scheduled out at the Transco Pump Station Friday. Safety awards will be presented, and a big Texas barbeque is planned.

This morning surely was a good morning for sleep! Looked like rain was a sure thing, but as we go to press the rain hasn't come. Need it, too.

Fashion tip: The men are going all out for PINK shirts for dress wear this season.

It pays to advertise! And even to thinking about advertising, for a friend came in yesterday and stated he had an item to put in our classified columns, but sold the item before he could prepare the ad!

Don't sell the A. H. S. football team short! The boys have lost three straight games, but they have been to either Group One or schools ordinarily out of our class. Friday night the team plays at Altavista and we will be hoping for a victory. Altavista, though, is having a good season, and this game will not be easy.

We were proud of Bill Jamerson in Richford Saturday. We met the V. P. I. bus before game time, and talked with Bill, Appomattox's contribution to Southern Conference football. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Jamerson. Also saw Fred Carr, who is one of the Terh student managers. Jamerson started the game for Tech, and I am telling you there was no finer player on the field, in our opinion. He made more than his share of tackles. And it is all the more noteworthy, for V. P. I. now has its best team in years, and you just have to be good to be in the starting line-up at tackle this year.

It was really an Appomattox day at the Tobacco Festival, for Peggy Ellen Cole, as the 1953 Queen of Tobaccoland, led the parade in a gorgeous float. She made a nice little speech in retiring in favor of Miss Martinsville, the 1954 Queen.

PLAY AT LONGWOOD

The Importance of Being Earnest a satirical comedy by Oscar Wilde will be the first dramatic offering of the season at Longwood College, by the Longwood Players at 8 P. M., Friday October 8, in Jarman Hall.

Oscar Wilde satirizes the foibles and weaknesses of the British upper-class society. The play makes fun of the manners and morals of the late Victorians. It has remained a perennial favorite since it was first presented in London in 1895.

FARM POPULATION CONTINUES TO DECLINE

The long-term migration from the farm to the city, accelerated since the early Forties by war and by the great increase in non-agricultural employment opportunities, has brought the farm population down to a new low.

Figures compiled jointly by the U. S. Bureau of the Census and the Department of Agriculture put the number of persons on farms at 21.9 million in April this year. This was equal to 13½ per cent of the country's entire population, the lowest proportion on record.

In 1950, the number of persons living on farms was over 25 million and the proportion to the total population was 16.6 per cent. Just before Pearl Harbor, in 1941, the farm population was 30 million and represented 22.7 per cent of the entire U. S. population.

Back in 1910, the first year for which figures are available, the farm population exceeded 32 million and represented more than a third of the country's total population.

Thus over the last four and one-half decades the number of persons living on farms has declined by nearly a third and the ratio to the total U. S. population almost twice as much.

There are now more than six persons in the non - agricultural population for every one living on a farm as compared with a two to one ratio in 1910.

Despite the drop in the number of farmers, however, agricultural production set new records over the last decade, thanks to mechanization and better farming techniques.

The figures show a substantial decline in agricultural employment in recent years and a higher proportion of those living on farms ordinarily out of our class. Friday night the team plays at Altavista and we will be hoping for a victory. Altavista, though, is having a good season, and this game will not be easy.

We were proud of Bill Jamerson in Richford Saturday. We met the V. P. I. bus before game time, and talked with Bill, Appomattox's contribution to Southern Conference football. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Jamerson. Also saw Fred Carr, who is one of the Terh student managers. Jamerson started the game for Tech, and I am telling you there was no finer player on the field, in our opinion. He made more than his share of tackles. And it is all the more noteworthy, for V. P. I. now has its best team in years, and you just have to be good to be in the starting line-up at tackle this year.

OLDEST MEMBER OF EVERG REEN CHURCH IS HONORED

The W. S. C. S. of Evergreen Methodist Church honored Mrs. Emma Baker Thomas with a surprise birthday party on September 17th, for her 85th birthday. The celebration was held in the recreation department of the church.

Mrs. Thomas has been an active member in all church activities. She is a charter member of the Old Missionary Aid Society, and served as president. This later became the W. S. C. S. She was a teacher and secretary and treasurer of the Sunday School. She has also been interested in community and civic affairs. She was one of the first women in the community to exercise the privilege to vote.

She received many useful gifts on the birthday occasion. A two-tier cake and punch featured the refreshments. Those present besides members of the W. S. C. S. were Mrs. C. I. Harvey and Terrell; Mr. and Mrs. Jim Baker and Miss Elizabeth Baker, of Darlington Heights; Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Baker and Miss Anne Baker, of Richmond; Mrs. Nell le W. Johnson and two sons, of Farmville; Mrs. Evie Anderson and Mrs. A. C. Lawson, of Appomattox; Mrs. Mabel W. Baker, of Florida; H. D. Baker, Jack Baker and Steve, and James Womack and Jimmie, of Evergreen.

REPORTS ARE WANTED IF ORCHARD GRASS IS DYING OUT

Heavy infestations of bluegrass billbugs have been found on orchard grass in Loudoun County, and VPI entomologists say they want reports if the grass is seen dying out in other areas of the state.

Arthur P. Morris, associate entomologist, says feeding injury can be detected this time of year by examining the clumps of grass at the base.

Corn earworms are continuing heavy damage to soybeans in several eastern Virginia counties. Other insect species such as green clover worms, cutworms, and alfalfa caterpillars are also present on the bean plants but the earworm is definitely the major pest.

Controls on the earworms used to date have not been very satisfactory. Counties in the Northern Neck area and east of the mountains should be alert for the same trouble.

Fall armyworms are also proving hard to control on late corn in some counties. Lesser cornstalk borers have damaged peanuts in at least one area in Sussex County.

WRESTLING IN LYNCHBURG

Lynchburg, Va., Sept. 30.— Becker Brothers ... Tiger Joe Mc

.. Leo Plummer ... Roubidoux ... O'Brien ... Freddie Blassie ... O'Toole and Stan Novak ... If them are due to appear on Clyburg's pro wrestling program week at City Armory. Matches will start at 8:30 P. M. Friday.

Featuring the card will be a return match between the tag team made up of George and Bobby Becker and Routhhouse Jack O'Brien and Lou Plummer. The crowd in last week's match saw the all-star team of O'Brien-Plummer annex the match by Referee Wild Bill Buckner to change his mind.

A wild finish saw Buckner ordered and both teams go on to Roanoke as the match ended in a .. several times while Buckner was on the canvas. Buckner came to and found the O'Brien-Plummer team on top and awarded the match only to have the crowd renew its protests. When apprised of the situation, Buckner ordered a re-wrestled and the Texas tag team, ready in the dressing room, refused to return to the ring to be counted out. On their appeal, Referee Charlie Lays ordered the whole match re-wrestled.

NEWS FOR VETERANS

Eligible disabled veterans discharged before October 20, 1951 have until October 20, 1954, in which to apply for a government grant toward the purchase of an automobile or other conveyance, the Veterans Administration has announced.

VA is authorized by law to make a payment of not to exceed $1600 toward the price of an automobile or conveyance, including special appliances, to World War II and post-Korea veterans entitled to compensation for three types of disabilities.

The three types of disabilities are

1. Loss or permanent loss of use of one or both feet.
2. Loss or permanent loss of use of one or both hands.
3. Complete loss of sight in both eyes or permanent impairment of vision in both eyes to a degree constituting virtual blindness.

The law requires that eligible veterans wishing to take advantage of this benefit must apply within three years after October 20, 1951 or three years after separation from active service, whichever is later.

VA said eligible veterans may file applications at the VA office nearest their home.
